The Pennsylvania Society of Gastroenterology (PSG) will hold its annual statewide meeting on September 28-30, 2012 at the Skytop Lodge, Skytop, PA. The weekend promises to be an exciting and stimulating event with speakers from many of the state's excellent medical institutions. There will be scientific sessions devoted to a range of gastrointestinal disorders. There will also be ample time for exhibitor display and interaction with our attendees during our welcome reception on Friday evening.

NEW THIS YEAR: PSG is offering a 10% discount ($400 savings) on the exhibit fee if payment is received by June 1, 2012. The regular exhibit table fee is $4,000. Companies exhibiting will be recognized in our onsite brochure as well as on signage at the meeting.

Industry Sponsored Symposia (ISS) Information: Take advantage of this opportunity to spend quality time with our attendees to present information about your product(s) in depth! ISS programs are a separate, private function occurring during the PSG Annual Scientific Meeting during which you'll have exclusive access to meeting attendees. To purchase an ISS and for additional information, go to

<http://www.pasg.org/NewsEvents/AnnualMeeting.aspx>

PSG is also offering sponsorship of continental breakfast at $2,500 and breaks at $2,000. We will accept the first six (6) companies who wish to sponsor a breakfast or break. Each sponsor will receive signage onsite at the breakfast or break table as well as recognition in the onsite program. Breakfast or break sponsors will not be allowed on site or have a table display. PSG's tax ID # is 23-2195718.

PSG is also offering corporate sponsorships. Please read more about that opportunity to support PSG at the link below.
